Special Presentation: At-large City Council Candidate Forum – There are four candidates running for two At-large seats. All four were in attendance. They are: Ben Davenport, George Furman III, Brad Martin and John Moss. The candidates were given time to introduce themselves and then answered questions presented by those in attendance. The questions asked are listed below. Specific answers were not documented so as to not misquote or misrepresent anyone responses.

1. Do you support exploring the possibility of transitioning from city (public works) to private trash collection?
2. What problems that city hall has been unable to solve do you plan to solve?
3. What challenges do you see for our city in the coming 5 years?
4. If you were on City Council or if you had been on City Council, how did you or how would you have voted on the personal property tax (increase)?
5. What will be the impact of upcoming DOD 2015-2016 SEQUESTER (Phase2) on VB budget and (city) tax incomes?
6. How would you plan to pay for Light Rail? In case of cost overrun and Maintenance and Operations? Could this cost degrade our triple-A credit rating?
7. Does the City provide good Civic Engagement and how would you make it better?
8. What are your positions on the issues at Burton Station and its Strategic Growth Area?

Old Business: None

New Business: Mr. John Burkard, Ocean Park Volunteer Rescue Squad, was recognized as a recipient of this year's Neptune Festival Hometown Hero award. John also told us about two upcoming volunteer opportunities for OPVRS – Onsite Blood Drive and Golf Contest Fundraiser.
